

Title: "Tigers: Roaring Friends"

Page 1: Colorful Illustration of a Tiger Text: "Meet the Tiger! Can you spot the stripes?"

Page 2-3: Illustration of a Tiger's Body Text: "Tigers have a special coat with stripes. Each tiger's coat is unique, like a fingerprint! They also have sharp claws and strong legs."

Page 4-5: Illustration of a Tiger Eating Text: "Tigers love to eat! Their favorite food is meat, like deer and wild boar. They use their sharp claws to catch their prey."

Page 6-7: Illustration of a Tiger Playing Text: "Tigers are very playful! They like to climb trees, chase each other, and even play with sticks. They are very good at hiding and sneaking up on their friends."

Page 8-9: Illustration of a Tiger Sleeping Text: "Tigers need to rest after a long day of playing. They like to curl up in a ball and take a nap in the sun. They are very good at sleeping, but they can wake up quickly if they sense danger."

Page 10-11: Illustration of a Tiger Family Text: "Tigers are very social animals. They live in families, called prides, with their mom, dad, and siblings. They take care of each other and work together to find food and stay safe."

Page 12: Illustration of a Tiger in its Habitat Text: "Tigers live in the forest, where they have plenty of space to roam. They like to stay hidden, but they can be seen in the early morning or late evening when the sun is not too bright."

Page 13-14: Illustration of a Tiger's Habitat Text: "Tigers need a lot of space to live. They like to have tall trees, deep rivers, and plenty of grass to hide in. We can help protect their habitat by not littering and taking care of the environment."

"Sadly, tigers are in danger. Their habitats are being destroyed, and they are being hunted. We need to help protect them by supporting conservation efforts and spreading awareness about the importance of preserving their habitat."

"You can help protect tigers too! You can learn more about them, tell your friends about them, and support organizations that help protect them. Remember, every small action can make a big difference!"

Back Cover: Illustration of a Tiger Roaring Text:
"Remember, tigers are our friends! Let's work together to protect them and their habitats. Roar with us!"
